

Film Story of Irish Struggle Presented

The Ancient Order of Hibernians of Washington prepared today to present, for the first time, the movie version of Ireland's struggle against the invasion of the "Black and Tans," as interpreted by veterans of the battles of 1916.

a committee which includes Patrick H. O'Dea, chairman; John C. Hanley, secretary, and Joseph A. Daly, treasurer.

Entitled "Dawn Over Ireland," the film was scene in Killarney, where much of the fighting occurred. Men who actually came to grips with the British expeditionaries take the leading roles.

The committee will show the film at the Rialto Theater, Ninth and G streets N.W., on Saturday and Sunday, November 19 and 20, from 2 to 11 p.m.

Cotton Export Law

Violations of the law prohibiting domestic use of pure cotton cloth designed for export are assuming serious proportions in Japan.

Dean Doyle to Receive Ecuadorian Medal

Capt. Colon Eloy Alfaro, Minister from Ecuador, yesterday officially notified Dean Henry Grattan Doyle of Columbian College, George Washington University, he will receive the decoration of the National Order al Merito of the Ecuadorian government for "services to the republic and to humanity."

Medals will be conferred upon Dean Doyle, Dr. Cloyd Heck Marvin, president of the university, and George Howland Cox, director of the Inter-American Center at the university, in formal ceremonies at a later date.

Dean Doyle was a contributor on South America for six and a half years to Current History Magazine. He is also a former national president of the American Association of Spanish Teachers. He is currently working under the Harvard Council of Hispano-American Studies and is charged with the preparation of three bibliographies of the literature of Spanish-American countries.
